Welcome to Daniele, Inc. Based on processes and techniques developed and refined over many centuries, the company has earned a reputation for excellence throughout North America. As the business has passed along from one generation to the next, Daniele, Inc. — always synonymous with quality — remains the pride of its founders, the Dukcevich family.

from an Age-old Tradition

Prosciutto is the product of a 900-year-old tradition.

In the United States, each Prosciutto produced by Daniele is aged for nine to fifteen months. The perfect combination of temperature and humidity ensure that its texture is soft and tender, that its flavor is sweet, and that its color remains a delicate pale pink. At Daniele, we still adhere precisely to the original specifications developed more than 900 years ago . . . salt, pepper, and time are the only ingredients we add.

When an occasion calls for the best, only authentic Prosciutto will do.
